

Adam Schroeder

Involvements:

Delta Chi Fraternity

Sigma Tau Delta English Honor Society

Major: English

What do you think is the most valuable lesson you have learned from your experiences so far?

“I have become such a worldly human being. I grew up in a town of 350 people, so coming to a campus with over 12,000 people made me question my conventional way of thinking. I’ve been able to broaden my horizons in every aspect. I’ve met people that I would not have if I were to stay in my town of 300.”

Name: Brady Taylor

Major: Mass Communications

Do you work outside of school?

“Yes, I work at the MUC on the production teams.”

Involvements : Delta Chi Fraternity

Favorite Part About College? “Freedom of being able to do anything I want without anyone watching over my shoulder.”

Hardest Part? “Having to learn time management between trying to balance school, work, and being the president of my fraternity.”

Maisy Garrison

Major: Geography

Favorite Song Right Now:

What organizations are you a part of, if any?

“I participate in RCM, but I am mostly active in HSA.”

What is the most challenging part about being a college student?

“Balance is incredibly difficult for me”

Do you work outside of school? “Yes, I work at Green Earth Grocery and at the Honors Office for SIUE.”

“My favorite part about college is the connections I have been able to make.”

@maisyraee
@siuehsa
@rcm_siue

*Pictured: decorating for a friend's birthday party

Max Lenhart

Major: Psychology, minoring in Applied Communication Studies & Exercise and Sports Psychology

Do you work outside of school?

“I work for The Alestle as a photographer.”

What organizations are you a part of, if any?

Photo Club- Secretary

Psychology Club

Honors Student Association

What is your favorite part about being a college student?

“Connecting with people and broadening my horizons. The multi-cultural community around here is intriguing to be a part of, and has forced me to challenge my existing viewpoints.”

“The freedom to explore is a gift, but not knowing what to do with it can feel like a curse.”

